

Dear Elizabeth Windsor,

As the self declared head of state in the UK
I am writing to inform you that in the event of Margaret Thatcher receiving a state funeral, I will...

- Demonstrate along the route. This will include coordinating with others to sing 'Ding Dong' throughout the entire procession
- Chain myself to the gun carriage preventing it from moving
- Let off fireworks
- Hold a barbecue by Westminster Abbey wearing a comedy apron
- Hire ventriloquists to throw their voices, shouting, "why is it so dark in here?"
- Throw coal at the coffin
- Other:

Yours sincerely,

Elizabeth Windsor
